Girls Start Tennis Tourney Tomorrow Extra

Contests at Rosedale and Georgetown Courts Open Series of Lively Matches for Playground Department Medals and Times Trophy Cups.

GAMES TOMORROW: Hayes vs. Wheatley, at Rosedale playground. Fillmore vs. Jackson, at Georgetown playground

GAMES TUESDAY. Maury vs. Webb, at Rosedale playground. Johnson vs. Ross, at Mt. Pleasant playground. Hyde vs. Addison, at Georgetown playground Henry vs. Twining, at New York avenue playground.

Rosedale playground, and when Fillnore meets Jackson at the Georgetown playground, tomorrow, a series of lively rooting, are promised. For these are the scenes of the launching of the girls' tennis tournament on eight of Washington's playgrounds, for which the playground department is offering medals, and The Times is offer ing eight cups as trophies. The Rosedale playgrounds seem have stolen a march on the others. Already two games have been played there, and interest already runs high. Anonuncement that The Times would rive a cup added zest to the competition.

Results of the games already played will not be announced until Tuesday, along with the opening games on the Georgetown playground.

Courts Centers of Interest. At the latter playground, the tennis courts, according to Miss Elva Whitcomb, director, have been the centers of interest all the week.

There was much good natured rivalry to get chances to practice on the courts "G:rls are just as good sports as boy are," said Miss Whitcomb today. "At least those on my playground are

They are as enthusiastic about this as the boys are over bagebail series.

"The Times is to be commended for adding to the interest in the contest, by its offer of cups."

Miss Robertson acts as referee for the games on the Rosedale playground. Miss Elva Whitcomb will be the umpire at the Georgetown mayground.

Each School Has Four Teams. Each school will have four teams Each team will play each of the other teams before the season closes. In order to keep the girls "in the game," the contest will not be an elimination one, but will go to the school chalking up the greatest number Miss Ella Gardner, who has charge of the tournament, announced today a meeting of the managers of the Vir-ginia avenue playground for Wednes-

When Hayes meets Wheatley on the cosedale playground, and when Fill-nore meets Jackson at the Georgetown layground, tomorrow a series of lively ennis matches, accompanied by merry coting, are promised.

Dublin News Drives Giant Irishman Mad

Fights Three Men and Frees Self From Straightjacket Before Being Subdued.

NEW YORK, April 30 .- John Dalton, employed on Mrs. Charles J. Gould's estate in Tarrytown by Allen Lehman, who has leased it, received a letter yesterday from his home in Ireland which told of the insurrection brewing when it was mailed, and he went violently insane. He had been reading everything printed about the Irish revolt. Dalton turned on the gas in every room of the house, took off his clothes, put on a mask and chased the other put on a mask and chased the other servants out with demoniacal yells.

W. J. Bowles, chief of police, and other city officials hurried to the place and induced the nude man to put on his clothes. He appeared calm and asked Bowles to step into an adjoining room. There Bowles was knocked down. Then a straitjacket was put on Dalton, and he was taken to the Tarrytown hospital.

Dalton broke the straitjacket a few hours later and wrecked the room, but finally was confined in a new strait-jacket.

The Longing Look

Every woman knows what it means, and strives for it-that unerring sign of admiration, the unconscious tribute to superior style, that makes you turn for a second glance.

In all assemblages it is the women whose costumes are made from Pic-torial Review Patterns who attract the most flattering and admiring comment. No other patterns are so chic-so distinctive in style.
